

CASTLE CAMP

Arrival

For parents who will personally accompany their son to Dublin Oak, we will be happy to receive you on Saturday, July 1st 2017 from 9am – to afternoon.

If your son is travelling alone to Ireland, we will organise for him to be picked up at Dublin Airport. Please email the flight information at the earliest opportunity to Megan O'Brien to secretary@dublinoakacademy.com

Personal Account

It is advised that you provide your son with approximately €250 for his personal account for expenses for the 4 weeks Summer Camp and €125 for the 2 weeks camp. Any remaining amount at the end of the course, will be reimbursed in cash at his departure.

Laundry

A specific student laundry number has been assigned to your son and sent included on his acceptance letter. Please make sure you mark your son's personal belongings with this number on a visible place (collar for shirts, waist for trousers, ankle for socks...) The students in Dublin Oak Academy are provided laundry service, this number will ensure his clothes are returned to him in a timely manner. Laundry will be picked up daily and returned within 24 hours. All clothes must be both machine washable and tumble dryable. Please use sewed in labels if possible.

Departure

For parents who will personally pick up their son from the four week summer camp, we will be happy to receive you on Saturday, July 29th 2017 between 10am and 1pm.

Phone Calls

Phone calls with your son will be on Wednesday and Sunday from 7.25pm to 8.00pm (Irish time). You will call him to his assigned mobile number. We will confirm this number by e-mail before the first scheduled call.

Medical

Any specific medical requests should be sent in writing on application. Should your son need to be taken to see any doctor throughout his stay, these visits will be charged to his personal account.

*Please make sure you send all relevant information about your son's known allergies (especially food allergies) or injuries, if any, well in advance.
